

A Time to Remember
All Saints', Cottenham
Saturday 11 November 2017 at 2.30pm

You, your family and friends are invited to this service to remember before God and one another those who have died and to give thanks for all that they meant to us.

Refreshments will be served in All Saints' Hall following the service.

If you would like a loved one's name to be read out during the service, please contact:
