It's that time of the year again!

At the Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) on 18th April at 7.30pm in the Church, we will look back over the last year and celebrate what went well, but also look to the future. Questions I ask in my own report to the meeting are, "What is God saying to you about the way forward?" or "What dream has God put in your heart for the transformation of the church and our village?"

It feels that we're at a critical juncture in the life of the church, which also means it's an exciting time to join the Parochial Church Council (the PCC). There are several vacancies that we're looking to fill.

The PCC meets every other month to discuss anything from finance, re-ordering the church, to mission and worship. New members are elected each year and serve for a period of three years (after which they either stand down or seek re-election). The cartoon is a bit of fun, but do please speak to Lynda or any member of the PCC to find out more.

Data Protection

People who attended services at All Saints' during March have been invited to complete a form allowing the church to communicate in various ways.

People who have not yet completed a form and who receive this sheet by email will be contacted shortly with information about how to continue to receive church emails.

All Saints Alive 16th and 17th June

Plans are well under way for our celebration weekend. As part of the festivities, Matt Unwin-Riches and Lynda Unwin are organising flower displays to represent all that we do at All Saints.

Would you like to sponsor a flower arrangement or, better still, to create one? If you have always thought you would like to have a go, or if you have hidden talents, now is your chance, so please get in touch.
